HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Finding a Park

There are 3 primary ways to find a park.

- 1. By the city where a park is located - Use the city index on page 78 to find the page with that city's listings.
- 2. By the park name - Use the alphabetical index on page 76.
- 3. By the general region of the state you'd like to visit - Use the Table of Contents to direct you to the appropriate region and start exploring! The region introduction includes some handy tools to narrow your search:
 - Region Info
 - Calendar
 - The large map includes locator numbers that correspond to park listings.
 - The Easy Compare Amenity Grid

"Easy Compare" Amenity Grid - Each region introduction includes a grid that lists the parks and their basic amenities. They are organized by map number in a roughly North to South manner. The map number correlates to the region map and the park's listing. The amenities shown are onsite at the park.

- Full Hook-up Sites - number of sites with full hook-ups; may have additional sites with partial or no hookups, see listing for details.
- Maximum Amp - highest amp hookups available; may not be available in all sites.
- Pull-thru Sites - at least 10% of the sites in the park are pull-thrus
- Lodging - Cabins, tent-cabins, yurts, RVs, etc available for rent
- Big Rig Friendly - these parks have some sites for RVs over 40 feet
- WiFi - wireless internet available.
- Pet Friendly - pets/dogs accepted, but check listing for any restrictions.
- Open All Year - if there isn't a ✓ here, see listings for specific open dates.

Information Found in Park Listings

Parks are listed by city with association members listed first; non-member parks listed at the end of each region as space allows.

Listings in each section generally run from North to South.

Listing includes:

SACRAMENTO ← City

Map Number: Corresponds to the numbers on the regional maps for each California region, as well as the state map on pages 4 & 5.

Locator Map: Used in conjunction with the written driving instructions, these maps will assist you in finding your destination. Maps are not drawn to scale.

Special Designations:

- Membership Parks – Offer some type of membership for sale. They may or may not allow you to spend the night without payment of membership fees and/or require attendance at a sales meeting. Call before planning to camp there.
- Nudist Parks – Offer camping for family social nude recreation either "clothes free" or "clothing optional;" may require a membership fee.
- Under Construction – These parks were under construction or closed for renovation at publication time. They expect to open during this year. Call to confirm opening dates

Why this Guide is FREE

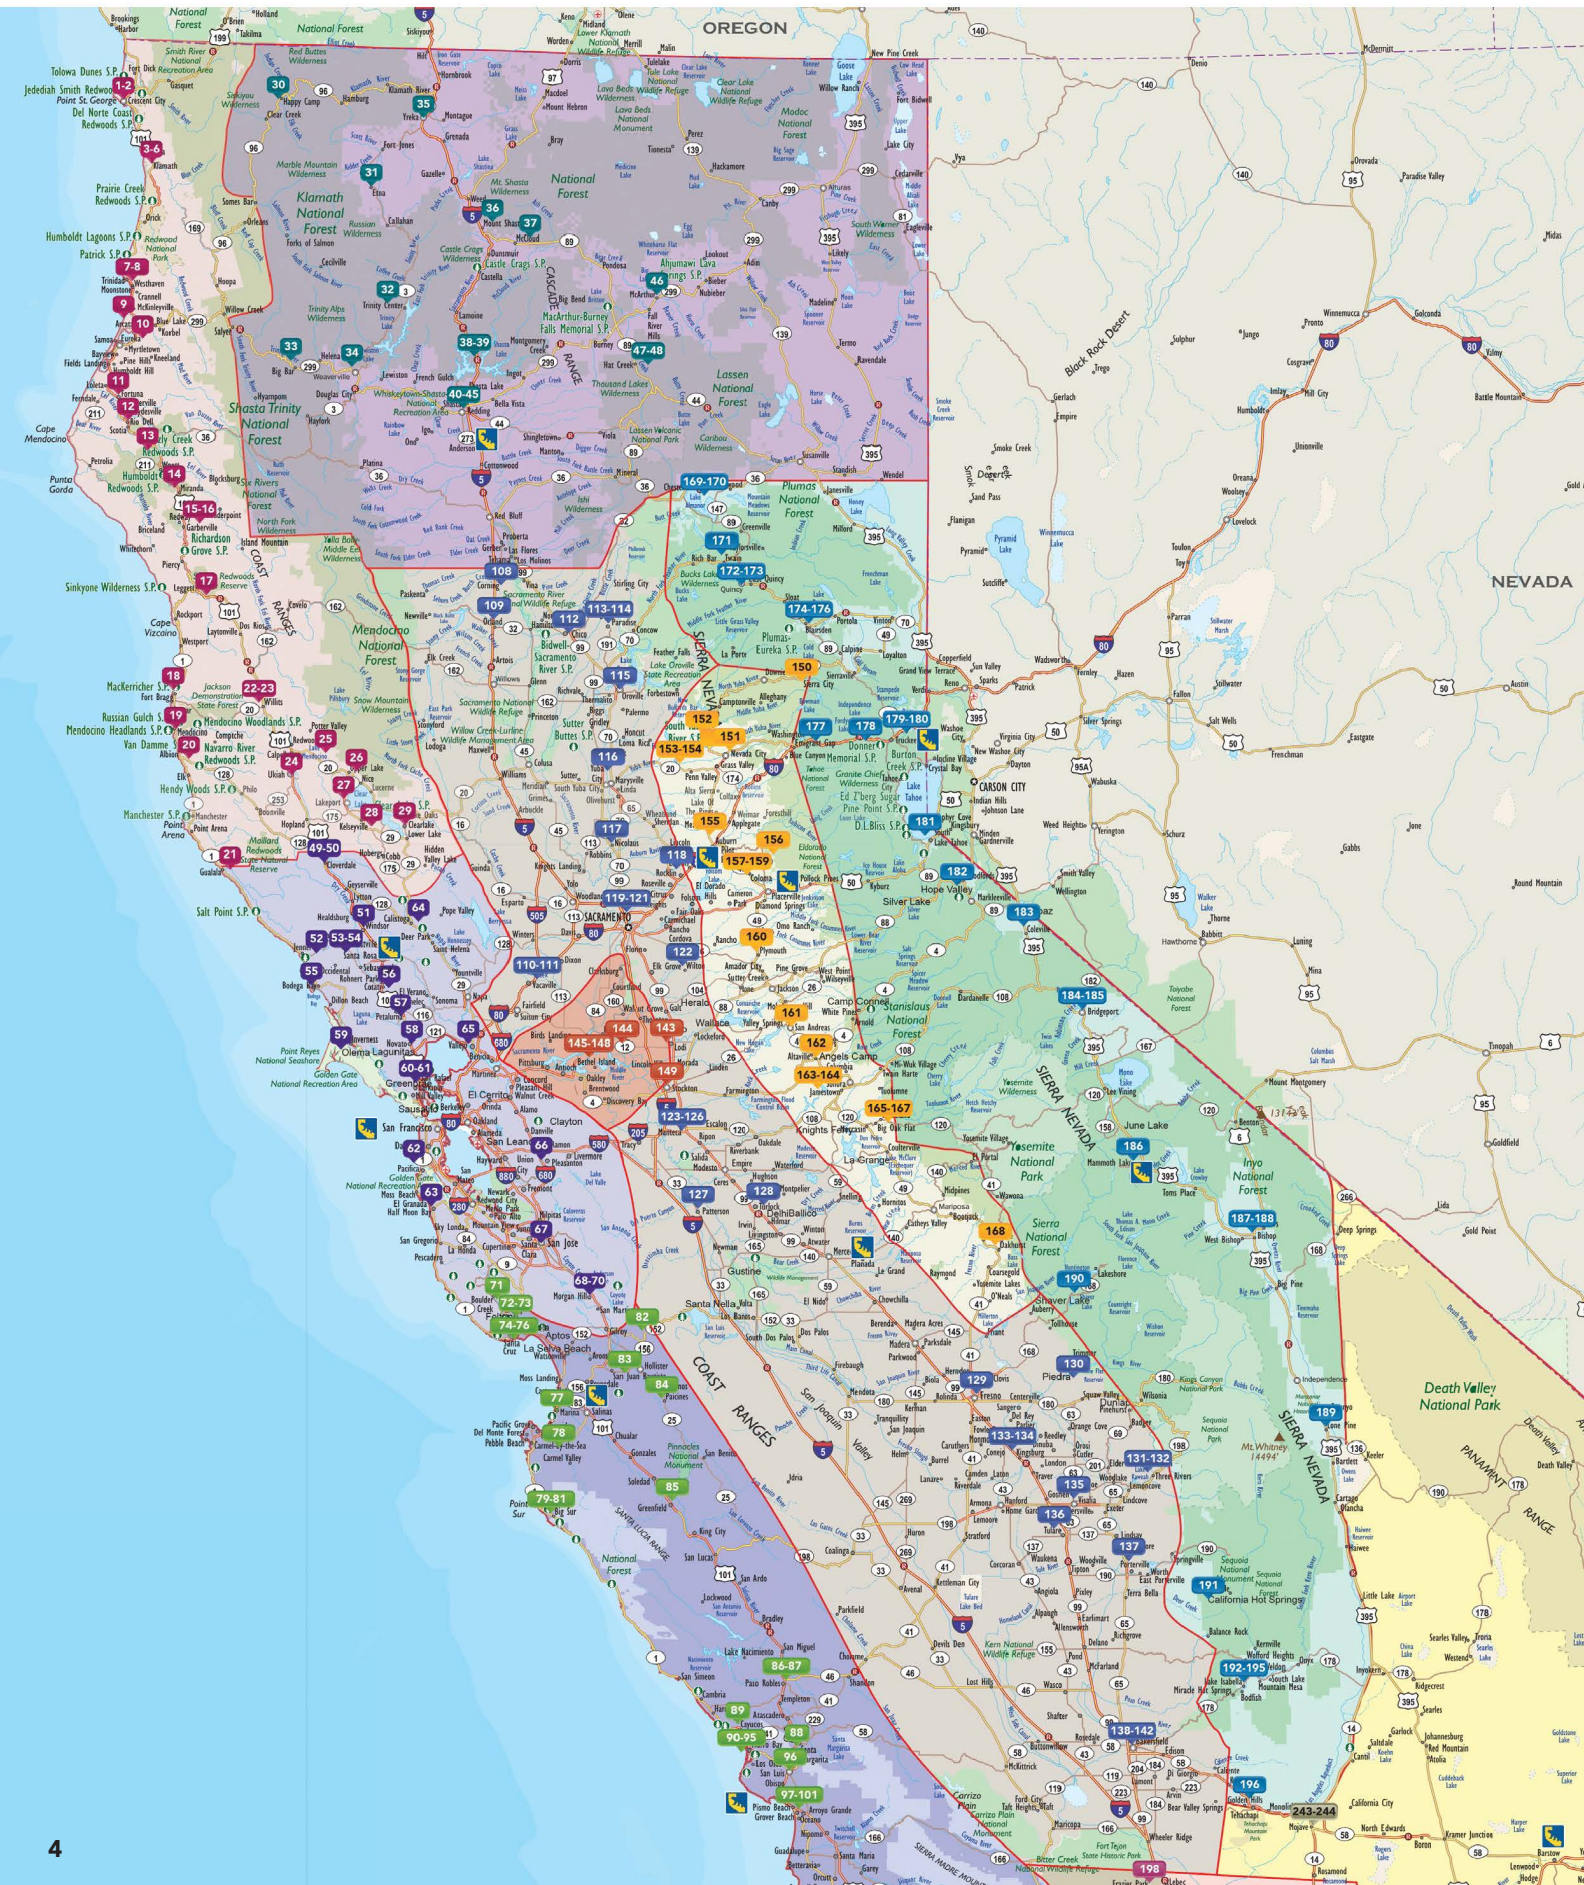

The Camp-California! Camper's Guide to California has been published to feature the members of the California Association of RV Parks and Campgrounds. These parks support their state association that works to ensure that campers in California enjoy a positive camping experience. The association educates its members about trends in the camping industry to aid them in meeting the needs of today's campers. In addition, they monitor legislation to assure that the RVing lifestyle can continue to thrive. Please support the parks who support the RVing industry ... they are the ones with the complete listing. Other parks have been included as a courtesy to you.

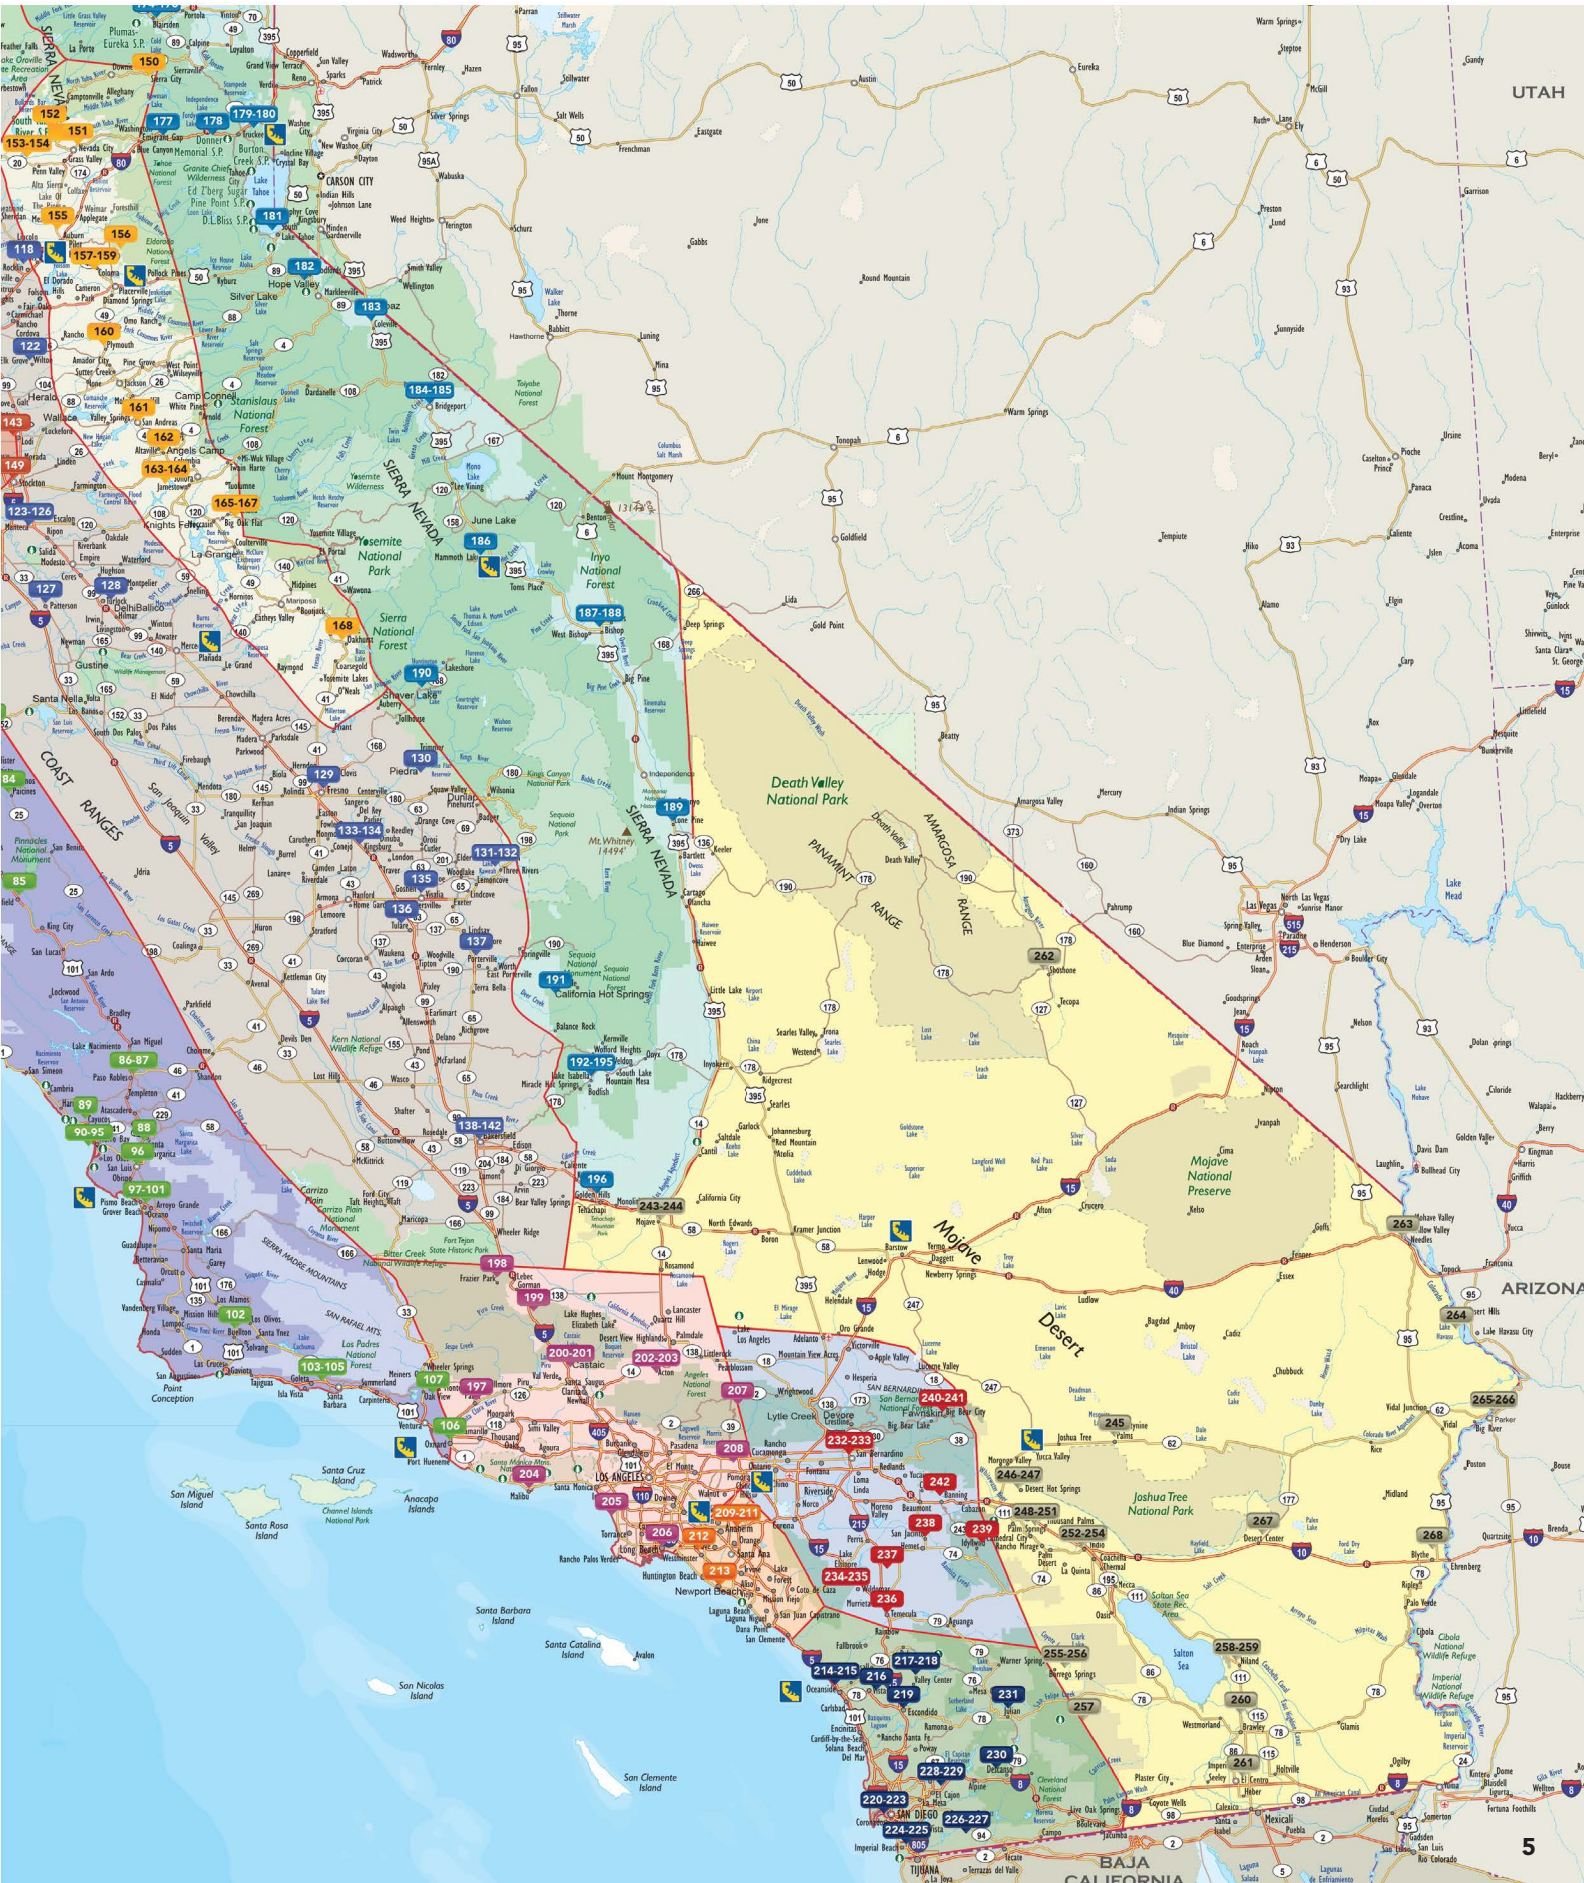

Without the support of these industry-minded parks, this publication would not be available to you at no charge. Be sure to tell the parks you found them in the Camp- California Guide!

What's your favorite camping style? Take pictures and share your stories with us. Post on our Facebook.com/ CampCalifornia or drop us a line at campstories@camp-california.com.

CALIFORNIA MAP

NORTH COAST

Stretching from the southern Oregon border to just north of San Francisco, the North Coast region just may be the most romantic. From swirling morning fog to greet you in the morning to breath taking sunsets in the evening, you may never want to leave!

The area is best known for its gentle giants, the Coastal Redwood trees. With some towering more than 300 feet high and some more than 1,000 years old, the majestic beauty of the Avenue of Giants is something everyone should see once. Take a train ride through the forest and get a feel for the natural beauty that is so abundant.

A number of outdoor recreational activities like hiking, bird watching, kayaking, fishing, wildlife viewing, hot air ballooning and more await you! Have a picnic on a beach, under a redwood tree or at beautiful Carson Falls.

If you're looking for some California history be sure to see the gorgeous Victorian homes in Ferndale, historical lighthouses and a number of museums, all which are worth taking a trip to see. If you are looking to sample California cuisine and wines then you won't be disappointed! Home to the Napa Valley, the region boasts internationally-known chefs and many of the best vintages the state has to offer.

Home of the Giant Coast Redwood. These trees can live to 1800 years and can reach up to 379' in height and up to 26' around.

California...Birthplace of Craft Beer!

Pining for Pale Ale? Crazy for Kolch? Eyes peeled for IPA's?

Whatever your favorite beer, you can find it at one of the more than 700 craft breweries operating in California!

As the birthplace of the American craft brewing movement, there are more breweries here than any other state in the nation and California is quickly becoming an epicenter for new styles and high quality beer. So when you're getting a little thirsty while exploring the beauty of the North Coast, here are a few local breweries where you can sample some of the best:

- Mad River Brewing, Blue Lake, CA – www.madriverbrewing.com
- Lost Coast Brewery, Eureka, CA – www.lostcoast.com
- Eel River Brewing Company, Fortuna, CA – www.eelriverbrewing.com
- North Coast Brewing Company, Ft. Bragg, CA – www.northcoastbrewing.com
- Mendocino Brewing Company, Ukiah, CA – www.northcoastbrewing.com
- Anderson Valley Brewing Company, Boonville, CA – www.avbc.com

While brewery options are available all throughout the state, if you are searching for some additional options in Northern California, here are a few more you may want to check out:

- Wildcard Brewing Company, Redding, CA
- Sierra Nevada Brewing Co., Chico, CA
- Track 7 Brewing Company, Sacramento, CA
- Russian River Brewing Company, Santa Rosa, CA
- Bear Republic Brewing Company, Healdsburg, CA
- Anchor Brewing, San Francisco, CA
- 21st Amendment Brewery, San Francisco, CA
- Fieldwork Brewing Company, Berkeley, CA

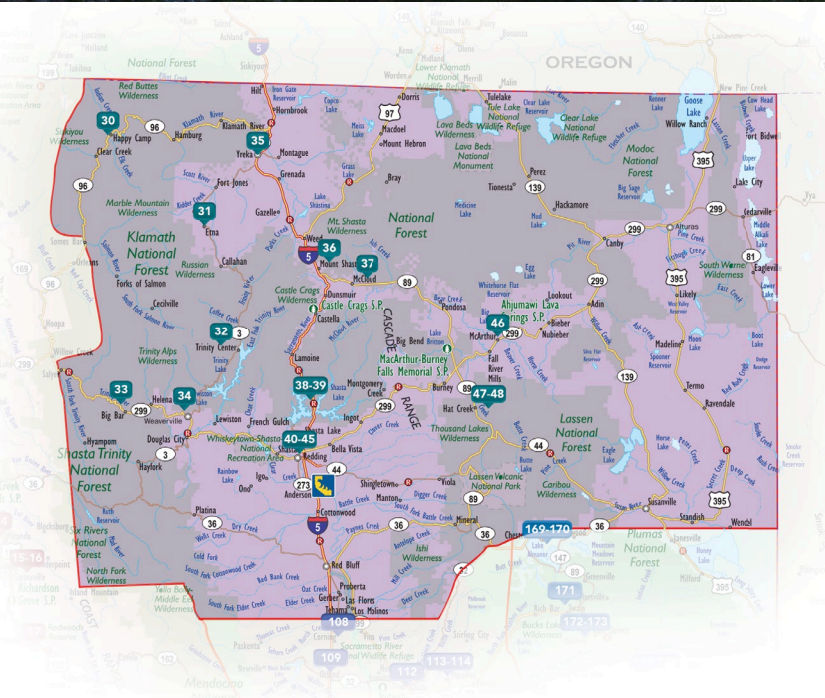

SHASTA CASCADE TRINITY

Panorama of Mt. Shasta from Heart Lake

The Shasta Cascade Trinity region seems almost wild and untamed as it is one of the least populated in the state. Mt. Shasta looms high above with snowcapped volcanoes, while lava still flows under Lassen Volcanic National Park. The area is an outdoor lover's paradise. There are numerous opportunities to hike along trails, go boating, see waterfalls, view wildlife, picnic by lakes and streams, fish, hunt and more! With small towns offering boutiques to shop in and cafes to dine or sip coffee at, the area is an ultimate escape from all the hustle and bustle!

We stopped here for one night on our way home from SoCal. The camp owners were over-the-top friendly. Their customer service was top-notch. ... The convenience store was small with very minimal supplies but they had ice cream and that was all that mattered. ... The sites were large and perfect for our 32' 5th wheel. I would definitely recommend staying here. It's a great place! - webehappyca

CARADO; THE RIGHT-SIZED RV

If you thought recreational vehicles were big, clunky, and perhaps even outdated, think again. Carado motorhomes are leading the RVing revolution – one that's all about style, efficiency, and quality. Available in two turnkey Class B camper van models, the Carado is filled with the features and equipment you need to travel where you want, when you want – no reservations needed.

It's comfortable – without being 'cushy'. It's stylish – without being gaudy and it'll change your mind about what an RV is, and isn't.

SAN FRANCISCO

The San Francisco region is an international tourist destination. Famous for such architectural landmarks as the Golden Gate Bridge, the Transamerica building, Coit Tower, as well as many Victorian houses that still stand today.

Walk along Fisherman's Wharf, relax and have some fresh hot clam chowder and sourdough bread. Walk down Lombard Street or hop on an iconic cable car to get to Chinatown or Union Square to do some shopping. Take a ferry to Alcatraz, visit a museum or have a picnic in Golden Gate Park. You won't be at a loss of things to do!

Head south along the coast and visit quaint coastal towns like Half Moon Bay. The southern part of the San Francisco Bay region is home to the Silicon Valley and such tech giants as Google and Apple. You will also find more shopping, fine dining, museums and curiosities like the Winchester Mystery House.

Discovering the Central Coast is like opening a treasure box of the best California has to offer. With over 300 miles of stunning coastline to the west and rugged mountains to the east, it is a dreamland for travelers. Its mild temperatures and beautiful landscapes have attracted many to this area, including many famous writers and artists.

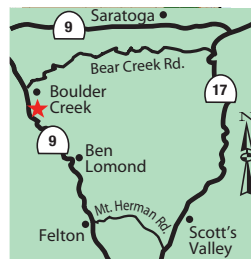

Those that love to shop, as well as wine and dine, will not be disappointed with what the region has to offer. Amazing food, fine wine and artisan crafts can be found in the many small towns that dot the landscape between Monterey and Ventura, including Cannery Row which offers not only many unique shops but a rich lesson in California history as well.

Those that appreciate architecture will want to see the stunning, indulgent beauty of Hearst Castle, one of the most popular non-theme-park attractions in the state. The beach town of Santa Barbara boasts Spanish Mission Revival buildings complete with red tile roofs that won't disappoint either.

Take a hike or bike ride and catch a glimpse of the native wildlife such as Monarch butterflies, sea otters, gray whales and birds, just to name a few! If you want to see some of the creatures that call the Pacific Ocean home than be sure to stop at the Monterey Bay Aquarium.

Welcome to SLO CAL

A PLACE WHERE SLOW WILL SET YOU FREE. San Luis Obispo County (SLO CAL) offers travelers the best of the California coast – from mountain trails to sandy beaches, city culture to casual wine country – all in one easily-traveled area! Here, you'll discover a pace that will allow you to find your natural rhythm and to catch up with the things that matter most to you.

SLO CAL is home to multiple wine regions with over 250 wineries in all, vinifying 40 different grape varieties! In addition to wine, craft breweries, cideries and distilleries pepper the communities and lands of SLO CAL. Designated wine trails and clustered tasting rooms make it easy to plan a memorable itinerary for a quick afternoon or long weekend of tasting. The uncrowded roads and glorious scenery enhance the experience, working a playful magic that encourages visitors to relax and relish the moments.

Slow means taking the time to sip and savor. Vibrant agricultural and wine scenes bring unique SLO CAL-crafted goods and foods – including lavender, olive oils, avocados and citrus. Local farms and producers deliver their goods fresh to 13 year-round farmers markets and to the tables of SLO CAL's incredible restaurants. A wide array of farm stands, retailers and you-pick orchards connect you to the region's agricultural roots and let you take the fresh foods back to camp or on the road.

Take some time off the road, too, and explore SLO CAL's natural wonders by foot, on horseback or even racing a dune buggy! Be awed by the grandeur of Morro Rock. Go wild on the Oceano Sand Dunes. Seek serenity on the trails of Montaña de Oro State Park. Get mesmerized by thousands of delicate, fluttering wings in the Monarch butterfly groves. However you choose, reconnect here with what inspires you, with nature and with your loved ones.

Highway 1 is California's original road trip, and this iconic byway is completely open in SLO CAL, as are all its coastal destinations, such as Ragged Point, and can't-miss attractions like Hearst Castle. With a closure on the highway just to the north in Monterey County (expected to last well into 2018), travelers coming from or heading to the north will want to take Highway 101 over the county line. The shorter, easier drive to Monterey will give you time to explore the scenery and attractions of SLO CAL's North County, such as the historic Mission San Miguel Arcángel, before you make your way back west.

Camping in SLO CAL means scenic locations near the mountains, overlooking vineyard valleys or near the Pacific Coast for sunny days that melt effortlessly into star-studded nights. The RV parks here offer easy access to a wide variety of views, amenities and experiences - from coastal, family-friendly communities to zip-line adventures, the tastes of wine country to the fresh-from-the-sea foodie hot spots. With a variety of options, you can spend the night in a cozy rental cabin, snuggle in your own RV or lie under the stars in your tent. Discover the California less traveled in SLO CAL, San Luis Obispo County!

VISIT SLOCAL.COM AND START PLANNING TODAY

CENTRAL VALLEY

The Central Valley begins in the northern Sacramento Valley, resting against the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountains. Following the primary travel corridors south (I5 and Hwy99) you will move along the valley floor through orchards and past roadside fruit stands.

California's agricultural abundance includes more than 400 commodities and produces nearly half of all US-grown fruits, nuts and vegetables. Farm to Table is a philosophy of life throughout Central California, and we are thrilled to be able to share it with visitors and locals alike.

Corning: Lots of olives. Century old olives. Prepare to be amazed how good fresh pressed olive oils and olives can taste.

Tour the magnificent orchards around Orland, especially in early spring when the almond orchards are in bloom. A visit to Orland cannot be complete without taking a moment to "stop and shop" in a few of the town's charming boutiques. An eclectic array of treasures, old and new, can be found, and you are certain to be greeted with a shopkeeper's friendly smile.

Why is it that a vacation never seems complete until you've done a little shopping?

Vacaville prides itself on being one of Northern California's most family friendly destinations. Nut Tree Plaza is a beautiful and expansive outdoor shopping center and Vacaville Premium Outlets is one of Northern California's largest shopping destinations.

Chico's downtown is a thriving area for unique, independent retail shops and restaurants. City Plaza hosts free concerts regularly during the summer. Performance venues large and small, bars, coffee shops, bookstores and city offices contribute to a lively and flavorful experience.

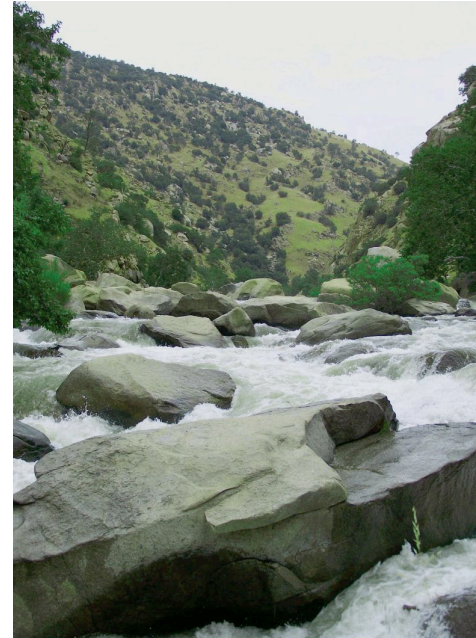

As you near Paradise, you will climb from the valley floor, past the oaks and into the pines. The contrast is breathtaking, welcome to Paradise. Lay back on a sun-warmed expanse of gray, quartz-sparkled granite and gaze out into a universe of green pines and blue sky.

Founded in the 1840s at the beginning of the California Gold Rush, Oroville, a picturesque and prosperous community, is rich in history ready to be rediscovered.

California creates and celebrates food! Take in a food festival during your California travels. See page 74.

The Great Oak

Oak trees have been giving us shade and beautifying our California landscape for a very long time. They can be found on rolling hills, along rivers, creeks and in valleys of 52 of the state's 58 counties. Many California cities, towns, streets, schools, parks and buildings use the word "oak" in their name. This suggests the significant role oaks have played in shaping California's character.

Throughout California's cultural history, oaks have provided the scenery for many dramatic events. When traveling in and through California's Central Valley, be sure to take a moment for standing beneath the canopy of an old oak here and there.

BUY IT WHERE YOU BURN IT.

California forests are threatened by nonnative insects and diseases. These invasive species can be transported on firewood to new areas where they can become established and kill large numbers of trees.

HOW YOU CAN HELP:

- Leave firewood at home – buy or collect firewood where you camp.
- Use firewood in the same county or region where it was cut.
- Find local firewood at firewoodscout.org.
- Bring only what you'll need, and burn responsibly.

The Southern end of your trip through the Central Valley will bring you into Bakersfield. Originally known as Colonel Baker's Field has been a popular stopping point for travelers since the mid 1800's. Today Bakersfield has the nickname "Country Music Capital of the West Coast" but has something for everyone whether it be music, sports, eating, shopping or racing.

BAKERSFIELD SOUND

In the 1950's and 60's Bakersfield became an unlikely birthplace for a new sound – The Bakersfield Sound, the sub-genre of country music, described as a mix of twangy guitars, drums, fiddle, and steel guitar. Many musicians and entertainers were involved in making the Bakersfield Sound world-famous, including Buck Owens and Merle Haggard. Both artists have Bakersfield streets named in their honor. Opening in 1996, Buck Owens' Crystal Palace is a must see for visitors to Bakersfield. Many of today's biggest country stars interrupt world tours to play the intimate 550-seat venue.

Bakersfield Museums

For a comprehensive history of Bakersfield, a visit to the Kern County Museum is essential. The museum allows guests to experience the rich history and importance of the area. Other local Museums include a natural history museum, art museum, oil museum and zoo featuring local wildlife.

Bakersfield Basque

Bakersfield is home to one of the largest Basque populations outside of the Pyrenees mountains and the largest collection of Basque restaurants in the United States. The restaurants are a favorite locals and visitors looking for a unique family style meal. The Kern County Basque club also hosts a Basque festival each May for those wanting to experience a weekend full of Basque culture, food and fun. Other festivals include Jazz, Scottish, Indian, Greek, Bacon and Beer, Medieval and many others.

Bakersfield Racing

Bakersfield Speedway is California's longest continually operated raceway and also holds the title; West's Fastest 1/3 Mile High Banked Clay Oval. Kern County Raceway Park is the area's newest racing venue with asphalt, dirt and motocross tracks. Drag racing fans can head to Famosa Raceway for ¼ mile action, including the yearly March Meet and California Hot Rod Reunion in October. Looking for boat races? Lake Ming has you covered when the National Jet Boat Association comes to town.

DELTA LODI

Cities and towns such as Old Sacramento and the many Delta towns cast a certain magical spell upon visitors. It is not difficult to visualize how they were in historical times 130 years ago. Some have changed little. Please come and visit the cities and towns of the California Delta. Stay long enough to get to know them.

Clarksburg, on the west bank of the Sacramento River, produces some of California's most coveted wine grapes planted on more than 7,000 acres encompassing over 35 varieties. The Clarksburg Wine Company is located in the historic Old Sugar Mill, 15 minutes south of downtown Sacramento. Complete with picnic grounds that are dog and family friendly, the Old Sugar Mill is a perfect venue for your next wine trip.

Come see the Discovery Bay Boat Show, the first weekend in May. Central Delta, Bethel Island, is a resort community with boatyards, bait shops, RV parks, a golf course, waterside restaurants, dry-boat storage, and Thanksgiving Week Fishing Derby in November. Stockton, on the San Joaquin River, is home for the houseboat rental fleets and more marinas and yacht clubs are located in the Stockton sphere of influence than in any other part of the Delta.

Located between the San Francisco Bay and the Sierra Nevada Mountains, lies Lodi Wine Country, a region quickly emerging as one of California's most exciting wine destinations. Land of highly acclaimed Old Vine Zinfandels, and the self-proclaimed Zinfandel Capital of the World, Lodi produces over 40% of California's premium Zinfandel.

Two major rivers, the Mokelumne and Cosumnes, have brought soils rich in granitic-based minerals that lend complex flavors to the wines of Lodi. These old vines, some plantings dating back to 1888, are naturally low-yielding due to their age and consistently produce high quality fruit. Although expensive to maintain, Lodi winegrowers are committed to continuing this California heritage. Today, Lodi is home to over 80 wineries, hundreds of wines declaring Lodi as place of origin, and approximately 100,000 acres of premium wine grapes.

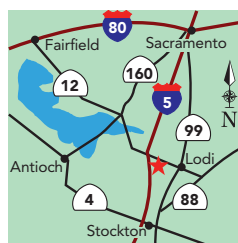

Since its inception as a farming community in the 19th century and through its evolution as a quality wine producing region, Lodi has always had what it takes to make a fine wine region: Down to earth people creating wines with a great sense of place. Their values are expressed in the widespread adoption of sustainable viticulture practices, ensuring that these vineyards will be farmed for generations to come.

Flag City RV Resort is ideally situated to explore 75,000 acres of Lodi vineyards and enjoy tours and fine wine-tasting opportunities at 80 unique wineries! The RV park store offers a variety of local wines and olive oils for purchase at the office's convenience store. Ask about a wine tasting party for your club or join us at our regular wine tastings and olive oil tasting events.

★★★★★ Make Flag City your 5★ RV Destination for Central California!

WHETHER YOU ARE IN LODI FOR BUSINESS OR PLEASURE, FOR RELAXATION OR REJUVENATION, LODI WILL SURPRISE AND DELIGHT.

Pass the afternoon sipping wine with a local winemaker. Shop for that perfect antique or gift in our historic downtown. Stroll barefoot along the beach at Lodi Lake. Tour a museum. Catch a concert or play at our performing arts theatre. Dine in casual or upscale surroundings.

Grapes are at the heart of Lodi's history. They thrive in the perfect blend of temperate climate and loamy soil, a heavenly match that earned the region the name Lodi Appellation in 1986. Today there are more than 85 wineries in and around Lodi, producing some 450 labels. This is a way of life that has been central to Lodi for more than 140 years. Old Vine Zinfandel, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Chardonnay are specialties of many local wineries, but you'll also find such unique wines as Spanish and Rhone varietals. Lodi's fourth and fifth generation wine growers are like proud parents; they love to discuss wine and share stories of one of America's greatest wine-growing regions. There's a good chance the winemaker is the person topping off your glass.

Find out why wine experts and visitors alike are referring to Lodi as one of Northern California's top wine country destinations! Lodi is located just 35 miles south of Sacramento and 90 miles east of San Francisco.

GOLDCOUNTRY

Little towns nestled in the foothills along Highway 49, hidden like the nuggets of gold that brought many to the area; await you in California's Gold Country region. Walking in towns like Jamestown and Nevada City, that still boast the Old West architecture, will remind you of the rich history of the area. Kids of all ages will love to step back in time and visit the Coloma area home to the Marshall Gold Discovery State Historic Park.

The adventure of the Old West is alive with winding trails to hike, bike or horseback ride, caverns to spelunk and native wildlife to watch. The region also boasts an abundance of lakes and rivers fed by Sierra runoff that offer many opportunities to go whitewater rafting, tubing, boating and fishing.

There is so much history to soak up from Columbia State Historic Park, a living gold rush town to Yosemite National Park and all its stunning, natural beauty lies within the regions borders as well and is a must see California landmark!

Family Camping...

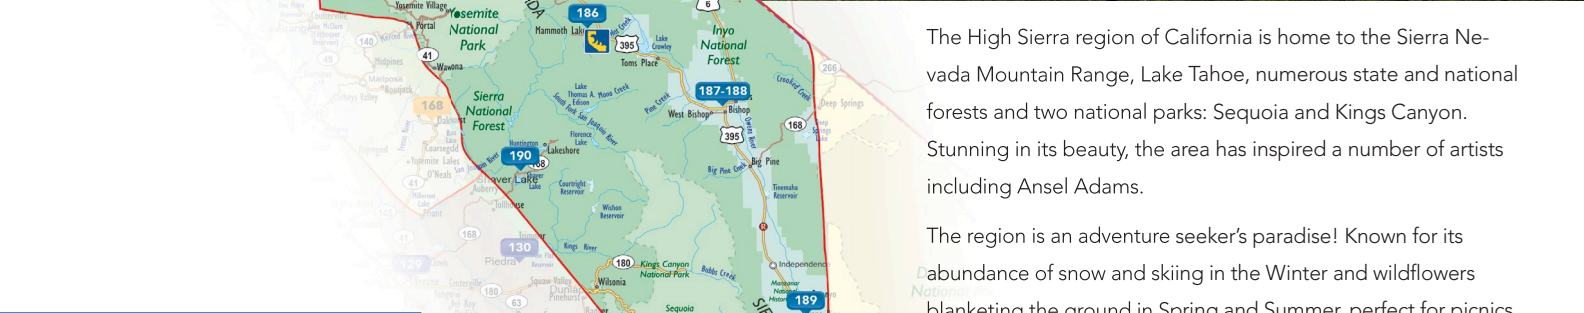

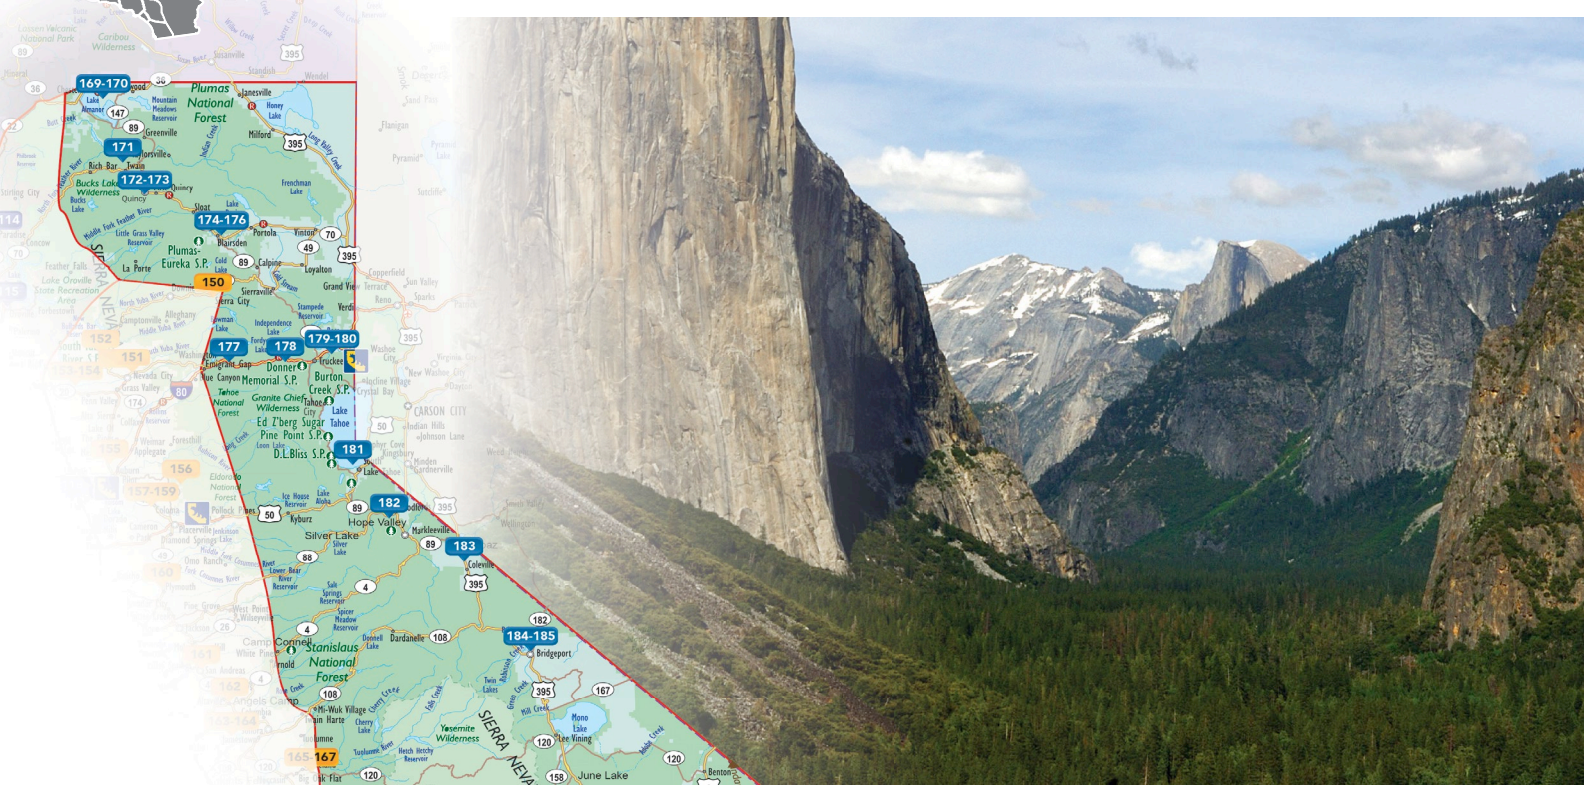

Tips to make your next trip fun for everyone!

Camping with kids is great family fun. We are all kids at heart when it's time to go camping, but when your camping trip includes young children some extra planning and precautions will make the trip more fun and memorable. Here are some tips to help you start thinking ahead about camping with children.

- Teach young children to stay within eyesight and older children within earshot. Employ the buddy system whenever possible.
- Teach children to stay where they are if they discover they are lost. Instruct them to find a nearby tree and stay with it until they are found. Children over the age of four can carry a simple survival kit or at least a whistle around their neck to call for help when lost. The standard distress signal is three blows to indicate "I'm lost" or "I need help."
- Sort and pack each day of your children's clothes within individual small plastic grocery bags in his/her suitcase. This way your child can grab a bag in the morning and have a full set of clothes for the day and at night he/she can stuff the dirty ones back in the bag thus not mixing up the rest of the suitcase.
- Children get cold faster than adults. The key to comfortable camping with kids is to dress them in several layers, which can be peeled off as they get warm or added on as they cool off.
- Provide each child with a flashlight. To prevent any arguments, make sure each one has their own. Children love to play with the flashlights, and having one also makes them more at ease after dark. Flashlights are also handy when making trips to the restroom, for making shadow puppets on tent walls, and for reading before bed.
- Bring along a game you all like to play at home. Playing it outdoors with a lantern or flashlights will add to the fun.
- Teach your kids to treat the outdoors kindly. Make sure all waste is disposed of properly when camping or hiking along the trails.
- Camping with children is more fun when you bring a playmate along. Two or more children will entertain themselves for longer periods than will a single child.

HIGH SIERRA

The High Sierra region of California is home to the Sierra Nevada Mountain Range, Lake Tahoe, numerous state and national forests and two national parks: Sequoia and Kings Canyon. Stunning in its beauty, the area has inspired a number of artists including Ansel Adams.

The region is an adventure seeker's paradise! Known for its abundance of snow and skiing in the Winter and wildflowers blanketing the ground in Spring and Summer, perfect for picnics and hikes, the region has something for everyone. Climbers will find an abundance of rugged peaks and glacier-carved granite to play on and anglers will find fish in any of the lakes and streams.

Product Review

We were thrilled to test out the Gazelle T4 Camping Hub Tent and Gazelle G5 Portable Gazebo for our 4th of July weekend camping trip with friends!

Both the tent and gazebo fit in the back of a small SUV with plenty of room for all of our other gear, but could also easily be secured to the top of a vehicle. The large handles of the bags made them easy to carry the short distance from the car to the campsite and they were light enough to move easily.

Set up was a breeze! While our friends were struggling to get their tents out of the bags and staked out, the Gazelle tent came out of the bag easily, and we had it up in just a little over a minute! After opening the windows for air, we utilized the 2 doors to bring our gear in and get set up, filling up the gear pockets/loft with the things we wanted to be able to grab quickly. This was our first time using a tent with 2 doors and we will never go back! It was so convenient to not have to crawl over each other to get out of the tent and we enjoyed the cross breeze from having both doors open.

With the tent set up, we turned our attention to the Gazebo, and had it up within less than a minute as well. So as our friends were still struggling to get their tents set up, we were ready to relax in our chairs – safe from the bugs in the Gazebo! It was also a great place to keep our ice chest and other food items as well as a gathering place for everyone.

At the end of a long weekend, everyone is usually tired and the idea of striking camp is daunting. But the Gazelle tent and gazebo both were so easy to take down and put back into the bags that our friends were asking where they could get one for themselves! And clean up was a breeze; back at home we removed the floor of the tent, sprayed it with the hose, let it dry in the sun and then put it back together and back in the bag.

Both of these products were so easy to use and well designed for a weekend away, we will be taking them out again and again!

On the Go with Pedego: 22 miles of Southern California coastal bike trails and cliffs in a day!

Boomer-Ventures by Koz & Christina

Today we are on the go with Pedego electric bikes! And lucky for us, we were able to pick up our rental bikes from the Pedego Corona del Mar store in Newport Beach. I, Koz, picked out a cool blacked-out Trail Tracker and Christina opted for a wild lime green Interceptor.

These bicycles are awesome. Pedego has 12 different models with everything from fat tire trail bikes to foldable electric bikes. Yes, foldable! They can easily fit right into the storage compartment of your RV. You can get a custom trailer for these bikes to haul surfboards or cart around the kids, along with handy saddlebags for small supplies. They even have an electric bicycle built for two!

All geared up, we set out to cover 22 miles of Southern California coastal bike trails and cliffs in a day, beginning our sojourn in the Newport Dunes Waterfront Resort and Marina, and ending in the Upper Newport Bay Nature Preserve and Ecological Reserve!

We met Kelly, our guide and we were off! Within a few minutes we stood in awe at the beautiful Newport Beach coastline. From this vantage point, we could see Balboa Pier and Newport Pier off in the distance. The cauldron of soft sand, beautiful bluffs and the sound of crashing Pacific waves are magical. Standing here just puts all of life's little worries into perspective. Our Boomer Venture began as every stop was cause for excitement. Our next venture took us to the world-famous Crystal Cove State Park.

Because we were on Pedego bikes, we were able to ride the Crystal Cove Historic District 12-mile Loop easily as part of our day trip. We leisurely pedaled along on our Pedegos as we took in the views, motored up the inclines, and stopped to take photos to capture the memories.

The ride up to the Resort at Pelican Hill would be challenging at best if it weren't for the power of Pedego. The powerful 48 volt battery pulled my 195lbs up the long steep hill with ease. With an incredible 60-mile range, you confidently attack almost any terrain. These bikes are sooo cool! You can pedal like a normal bike with various speeds and then use an easy-throttle via your right hand to kick-in the power of the battery. Pedego also has a Pedal Assist feature which automatically kicks in when you pedal, so there is no need to use the throttle unless you want an extra burst of speed. You always have complete control of the riding experience.

The long downhill ride back towards Newport Dunes is exhilarating and there are generous bike lanes. Again, the views of ocean, hills and expensive homes are amazing.

The Upper Newport Bay Nature Preserve and Ecological Reserve is made up of the bluffs surrounding the Bay and have approximately 1,000 acres of open space. You are instantly immersed in the rich smell of grasslands and coastal sage scrub, beautiful blue waters and the sweet sound of twittering birds. During winter migrations, up to 35,000 birds can gather at the Bay at one time. Considered a "critical estuary" habitat— Upper Newport Bay is one of the most pristine remaining estuaries in Southern California. Gliding effortlessly on miles of wide bike path, the silent Pedego electric motor seamlessly blended with nature's beauty.

Every Pedego store will provide you with maps and helpful instruction, and if you're a first-time visitor to Newport Beach, we highly suggest a seasoned tour guide for a big adventure like ours. We would have NEVER seen all the fantastic vistas and beautiful bike paths without Kelly's guidance. As a local native, she knows every secret bridge, bike path and bluff vista and Back Bay trail.

La Jolla Beach, San Diego

Sunshine, perfect weather and plenty of sandy coastline make the San Diego region the perfect place to vacation.

There are many ways to explore the San Diego region. Take a hike along one of its many trails, view wildlife, golf at one of the many courses in the area, swim or surf in the warm ocean water or bury your toes in the sand and sunbathe on a beach.

San Diego's Gaslamp Quarter boasts Victorian-style architecture and is a favorite of visitors and residents alike. Offering a shopping, dining and entertainment experience like no other, everyone will have fun here. The region is also home to some well-known animal parks as well, like Sea World, the San Diego Zoo and the Birch Aquarium. For the family, a trip to Legoland is sure to be a hit with the young ones and the young-at-heart!

Home to Camp Pendleton, the San Diego region has a rich military history. There are many military museums to visit, like the USS Midway Museum, as well as other area museums that share the history of the area with its visitors.

Pet Traveling Tips

Provided courtesy of the Humane Society

Common RV Park Rules - Campgrounds and RV parks want all of their guests to enjoy their stay. And unfortunately, some poorly trained pet owners, allow their pets to become a nuisance. As a result, campgrounds and RV parks have developed rules over the years to ensure the enjoyment of all their campers. Camp-California.com has samples of what you might expect.

Tethering – RV parks and campgrounds are specifically exempted from California dog tethering regulations and allow a person to “tether, fasten, chain, tie, or otherwise restrain a dog pursuant to the requirements of a camping or recreational area.”

Leash Laws – State Parks, beaches and other public places have specific leash laws and restrictions. Visit parks.ca.gov for more information.

Vaccinations – A rabies certificate or dog license may be required to bring a dog into a State Park, National Forest or Park, county park, or commercial campground. Make sure to pack this vital paperwork before you leave home.

Pets shouldn't roam in the car - The safest way for your cat or dog to travel in the car is in a crate that has been anchored to the vehicle using a seatbelt or other secure means.

Keep those heads inside! – Dogs and cats should always be kept safely inside the car. Pets who are allowed to stick their heads out the window can be injured by particles of debris or become ill from having cold air forced into their lungs. Never transport a pet in the back of an open pickup truck.

Don't ever leave your pet alone in a car - A quick pit stop may feel like no time at all to you, but it's too long to leave your pet in a car by himself. One hazard is heat: On an 85-degree day, even with the windows slightly open, the temperature inside your car can reach 102 degrees in just 10 minutes. If you're held up for 30 minutes, you may return to a car that's 120 degrees inside and a pet suffering irreversible organ damage or death. A year-round hazard is the unspoken invitation you issue to pet (and car) thieves any time you leave your pet alone in a car.

INLAND EMPIRE

Traveling to the Inland Empire region of California is like discovering a well-kept secret. Taking a nostalgic drive along a stretch of historic Route 66, winter skiing in the local mountains, or wandering through the regions wine country...this area offers year-round opportunities to get out and explore!

Many outdoor recreation activities await! Enjoy fishing and boating at one of the many lakes, hiking along the many trails, skiing in Big Bear or ziplining in the San Gabriel Mountains. These are just a few of the activities this region offers.

For an adrenaline rush check out the speedway and see some of NASCAR's fastest racers compete. For those that enjoy a slower pace, an abundance of opportunities await you! Shop at one of California's outlet malls, take in some wine tasting, play a round of golf or visit a museum.

visit Temecula

Welcoming nearly 3 million visitors each year, casual, picturesque, Temecula Valley Southern California Wine Country is a year-round getaway and vacation destination situated within southwest Riverside County. With natural gifts of climate and geography, Temecula Valley is conveniently located approximately 60 minutes from San Diego, Orange County, and Palm Springs, and 90 minutes from Los Angeles. Each visit to this genuinely inviting, boutique destination brings new possibilities and promises a wide variety of things to experience, enhanced by the sunny, relaxed spirit synonymous with Southern California.

With year-round events and festivals, Temecula stays buzzing with adventures of all kinds. From art galleries, to concerts to shopping and dining there is surely something for everyone. Temecula Valley's most widely planted crop may be wine grapes, but it has always been an agricultural haven for ranchers, growers and artisanal producers. A wide variety of family-owned farms dot the expansive landscape, producing fruits and vegetables, meat and dairy, and specialty crops like lavender and olives. Come taste, learn and explore!

Temecula Valley celebrates with seasonal events and live entertainment throughout the year; however, Summerfest is when visitors can catch the most performances among the vineyards and in Old Town Temecula. Whatever music genre you enjoy: Jazz, hip hop, classic, rock, reggae, country, bluegrass, Latin, blues...there is an event, concert or stage with a seat waiting for you.

Venues at Pechanga Resort & Casino, Old Town Temecula and Temecula Valley Wine Country offer great atmosphere whether it's under the stars, in the vineyards, an intimate speak easy or in a show room; the sound, space and performance is unforgettable.

Celebrate one of the most majestic means of transport with a peaceful hot air balloon flight over the rolling hills and lush vineyards of the Temecula Valley. Visitors can take in a panoramic view of Southern California's unique topography, beautiful estates, and awe-inspiring scenery with sunrise flights, available year-round to explore the subtle seasonal changes that take place throughout the valley. Plan a visit to the Temecula Valley in June to enjoy California's largest ballooning event, the Temecula Valley Balloon and Wine Festival, where you can reach new heights while enjoying top name concerts, wine tasting, balloon launches, and evening glow events.

Hot-air ballooning is one of the most fascinating and unique attractions in Temecula. Flights are available year-round, weather permitting at sunrise only, due to afternoon and evening winds. Expect to spend typically 60-75 minutes on your flight. Take a deep breath and enjoy a view like no other!

DESERTS

Death Valley National Park

With wind-swept sand dunes, stunning rock formations, a wealth of animal and plant life, the Desert Region of California will leave you speechless. Far from the bright lights of the big cities, you will be able to witness some of the most beautiful sunsets and star-filled skies you've ever seen.

One of the top outdoor recreational areas in the state, you will find a multitude of trails to hike, scenic drives and wildlife viewing. Campers, RVers, hikers and rock climbers flock to the region to explore places like Death Valley, Joshua Tree National Park and Anza-Borrego Desert State Park. The region's year-round warm climate is perfect for those who enjoy a round of golf, tennis or sipping drinks poolside at one of the many resort oases that dot the landscape.
